

U.S. GREEN BUILDING COUNCIL OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

SAVE THE DATE

"Head in the sky, feet on the ground"

The Evolution and Implementation of the City of Portland, Oregon's Green Building Strategy

Terry Miller

When: Monday, Feb. 27, 2006
Where: Embassy Suites Downtown Orlando
Time: 8 a.m. Speaker / 7:30 a.m. Breakfast Social

The City of Portland's green building policies will serve as an invaluable resource for Central Florida's building industry professionals and community leaders as awareness about sustainable building blossoms in Central Florida.

The Central Florida Chapter of the U.S. Green Building Council will bring to Orlando the expertise of Terry Miller, Portland's director of green building, for a talk entitled: "Head in the sky, feet on the ground," The Evolution and Implementation of the City of Portland, Oregon's Green Building Strategy.

Miller will speak from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. on Feb. 27, 2006, at the Embassy Suites Downtown Orlando, 191 E. Pine St. A breakfast social prior to Miller's speaking engagement will begin at 7:30 a.m. and resume following the talk.

The cost is $25 for USGBC-CF members, and $35 for non-members and walk-ins by check or cash only. Seating is limited, so please RSVP to Christina Webb at CWebb@gdcproperties.com by Feb. 22.

To find out more about the U.S. Green Building Council Central Florida Chapter visit: www.usgbc.org/chapters/centralflorida.

TERRY MILLER BIO:

Terry Miller is with the Office of Sustainable Development (OSD) in the city of Portland. The OSD coordinates research, policy, and events in the G/Rated Green Building Program. Prior to working at OSD, Terry worked in a variety of environmental disciplines ranging from native landscaping to biological surveying and also earned his master's degree in environmental management from the Yale School of the Environment. Terry currently coordinates G/Rated program activities, leads policy and program development, and manages the City's Green Investment Fund green building grant program.

- Speaker Sponsor

- Event Sponsor